

St. Augustine's Catholic Church
Parish Pastoral Council

Meeting Minutes

January 15, 2011

Attending Members:

Amy Bartilotti	Daniel DuPont	Jimmy Evans
Rolando Molina	Alan Ontiveros	Alberto Torres
Liz Welchons	Nancy Howland	Al Hallatt
Brandon Tomnay	Eileen Brown (staff)	Fidel Rubio (staff)
Msgr. Schmied	Hugo Calderon

Liz Welchons offered prayers and reflection.

- This was followed by a “welcome and share” period in which members introduced themselves and spoke of their involvement in church ministry.
- Minutes from the October quarterly meeting were reviewed with discussion happening in regards to the Pastoral Council Self-Assessment (page 6, October mm). Corrections were made. Liz Welchons made a motion that the minutes be approved. Alan Ontiveros seconded it.
- Minutes were approved and were to be posted on PPC board. Desired pastoral leadership qualities were spoken about (from the discernment process) and they were:
 1. Bold
 2. Visionary
 3. Speaking with one voice

Members of the PPC then began to discuss the need for communication that was not only effective in “getting out the message” but also invitational and inclusive. Amy Bartilotti mentioned setting up a Facebook page.

PPC then began to discuss who was going to represent each committee but did not finish.

Meeting dates were moved to once per month as opposed to quarterly to give more opportunity for forming as a council and to provide opportunities to be effective.

Meeting dates were set for the rest of the 2011-year (attached) as well as the PPC retreat, which will take place the first weekend of April with the PPC attending the Saturday liturgy together. It was decided that this would be a spiritual retreat and not a "working" retreat.

Meeting was adjourned and prayer was offered by Liz Welchons.
